

Guildford Design Awards 2023 Entry Requirements

1. Address of Scheme including postcode
 - Ivy Asia Guildford, 23 Tunsgate, Tunsgate Quarter, Guildford, GU1 3QY
2. Category of Project from list below
 - New Commercial Building
 - New Commercial Shop fitouts and Hospitality
 - New Public Building
 - New Build - Individual House
 - New Build - Multiple Housing – smaller projects up to 30 homes
 - New Build - Multiple Housing – larger projects 30 homes and over
 - Conservation Project
 - Regeneration Project including those involving an extension to an existing building.
 - Public Realm including soft (landscape) and/or hard works
 - Public Art
3. Name of Client
 - Troia UK Restaurants Limited – The Ivy Asia
4. Architect, Design Consultants or Artist
 - Designed by Internal Design team, Architect – Pump House Design the scheme features Artist, Paul Clifford and Adam Ellis
5. Key contact - Email address, phone number, etc.
 - That would be myself; Marcella De Benedictis, 0796948577 marcella.debenedictis@theivy-collection.com (International Senior Project Manager)

6. Brief description of the Project including key features of the design, maximum 1 page A4
 - Set over two levels consisting of 118 covers, housing floors illuminated with pink and green, semi-precious stone, a striking antique gold mirrored bar, luxurious Asian fabrics, brass top tables, and windows looking out on Guildford Castle. Adam Ellis designed wall and ceiling coverings are present throughout along with hand painted layered glass installations by Paul Clifford. A handmade life size sumo by H Design and authentic antiques from a private collection are also prominent features of the restaurant design.
 - The Ivy Asia, Guildford's kitchen is overseen by Head Chef Sagar Rane and Executive Chef Simon Gregory. Dishes will take inspiration from cuisines spanning the continent of Asia, and will feature much loved favourites from sister restaurants The Ivy Asia, St Paul's, and The Ivy Asia, Chelsea. Highlights will include prawn tempura with a chilli, lime & coriander dip, pork & kimchi dumplings, and wagyu beef glazed with shitake mushrooms, truffle yakiniku and a barbeque sauce. Also available will be platters show stopping including The Ivy Asia Black Shell, adorned with a fresh selection of yellowtail nigiri, prawn tempura maki rolls and salmon sashimi, perfect for sharing with family, friends and loved ones.

